

26th Annual Hampton Roads

Trauma Symposium

Complex Injury Patterns in Trauma

April 21, 2017

7
CME Credits

Williamsburg DoubleTree by Hilton

FOR MORE INFORMATION

757-594-6385

Trauma & Acute Care Surgery Services, Lou Ann Miller

ONLINE REGISTRATION: www.RiversideMD.Net

Working Together To Serve Our Community

PROGRAM

Complex Injury Patterns in Trauma: Lessons from Combat

Eric Elster, MD, FACS, CAPT, MC, USN

- Approaches to the initial resuscitation.
- Multidisciplinary approach to complex injuries.

What to do When it All Goes Bad in Disaster Management

J. Bracken Burns, DO, FACOS

- Understand all types of disasters.
- Be able to explain surge capacity and capability.

Critical Care in the Polytrauma Patient

Beth Broering, MSN, RN, CEN, CCRN,
TCRN, CCNS, FAEN

Stefan W. Leichtle, MD

- Identify life threatening critical care issues.
- Treatment of multiple critical care problems.

Management of Trauma in Patients Exposed to Ionizing Radiation

Nicholas Dainiak, MD, FACS

- Understand role of antimicrobial prophylaxis/treatment and hematopoietic cytokines.
- Distinguish radiation exposure from contamination by radiation.

The Trauma Patient's Perspective

Brian Boyle

- Discuss patient's perspective of event & recovery.
- Understand impact to the patient and family.

Stabilization and Prioritization of Polytrauma

Frank Y. Yang, MD, FACS

- Identify initial stabilization issues.
- Preparing patient for transport to trauma center.

Treatment of the Hypothermic Trauma Patient

Brian Lenczewski, MD

- Identify complications of patient.
- Discuss prioritization and treatment of patient.

"Water, Water Everywhere..."

Stephen Skinner, MD

Don Byars, MD, RDMS, RDCS, RVT, RPVI, RMSK

- Outline pathophysiology of drowning and near drowning.
- Highlight treatment priorities and prognosis.

Ultrasound Skill Station

Anjeza Cipi, MD

- Identify normal Extended FAST (E-FAST) views.
- Identify abnormal findings on E-FAST and more.