

The PreMed Training Group
&
Westmoreland Co. Va. Emerg. Services

Announce dates for an AHA ACLS – Experienced Provider (ACLS-EP) class in conjunction with PreMed Training Group’s “Complex Airway” class to be held at Montross Vol. Rescue Squad in Montross, Va. on May 30th & 31st, 2015.

The ACLS Experienced Provider course is designed for experienced clinicians with prior training in ACLS. This course focus is "the next step" in ACLS training. ACLS – EP provides a stimulus for expert clinicians and practitioners to identify areas in resuscitation that deal with special circumstances.

The case based small group sessions involve review of electrolyte abnormalities, toxicology, 12 lead ECG discussion, cardiac arrest due to special causes and post resuscitation care.

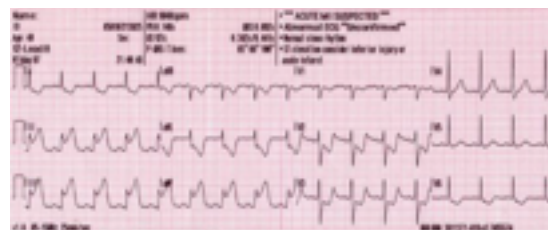

A team of instructors, led by ACLS Regional Faculty Glynn Lookabill, as well as other Regional Faculty & ACLS-EP instructors will facilitate instruction.

All participants will pay a Registration, supply & certification fee of $266 (in advance with this registration form).

EXPERIENCED PROVIDER

All participants are REQUIRED to have the 2013 American Heart Association ACLS – Experienced Provider Manual (item no. 90-1075). If at all possible, candidates should also bring the 2010 Guidelines Handbook or standard ACLS provider Manual to the class. AHA Textbooks can be purchased through a variety of vendors. Please allow a week for book delivery, so allow ample time to review books prior to the class.

Pre-registration is required.
These courses fill quickly. Only those who pre-register will be guaranteed placement in class.

PreMed’s “Complex Airway” course was designed to help Paramedics be Pro-Active rather than re-active.

This Combination of ALS Classes will carry over 18 hrs. of Va. OEMS ALS Cont. Educ.
